About the ECC

The Erin Chamber of Commerce is a not-for-profit incorporation.

Exists to serve its business members.

The Erin Chamber of Commerce is community and business driven. It is the voice for businesses across all economic sectors in the Town of Erin and surrounding region.

Vision

To provide support and promote economic success for businesses in Erin.

Mission

The Erin Chamber of Commerce will provide advocacy, benefits, education, networking events & marketing to and for its members; through creative, functional and cooperative public relations, website, fundraising and membership actions.

Why Join?

Our Members are proactive business people working together with the goal of supporting and strengthening their community through collective vision, collaboration and leadership.

1. Local Advocacy - ECC is committed to being the LEADING voice for business in the Erin Community. We work to identify, understand, and engage with the issues that affect you and share these concerns with our elected officials.

2. Meaningful Benefits - ECC is committed to providing members with access to benefits that reduce your costs, enhance your productivity, and aid your competitiveness. You can even offer your fellow members preferred pricing or special incentives with our member-to-member program.

3. Events that Promote Erin Business - ECC is committed to hosting, and partnering on, events that promote our members and the business community. These events celebrate local businesses like you and help connect us with our community.

4. Access to Relevant Information & Education - ECC is committed to understanding your needs and tailoring our communications and educational opportunities to support them. We also provide opportunities for local speakers and members to present on current and future business issues.

5. Networking Opportunities - ECC is committed to building relationships amongst local professionals by integrating networking as a central focus in our programming and events.

Benefits of Membership

The ECC provides professional development & leadership opportunities that encourage networking, as well as giving members exclusive access to partner deals and competitive discount offerings.
